Message from the Senior Warden

“Change is inevitable”

— John C. Maxwell

I have heard more than once that “Change is inevitable.” I suppose that is true however I am a creature of consistency. I like to wake up, take my medications, eat my meals, and go to bed at mostly the same time each day. I am one of those people who needs a consistent schedule each day to feel good. Likewise for what I do on a particular day of the week.

We recently found out from a news report (not directly from the city of Florissant) that our waste hauling company will change. That is the sort of change I do not really need. Any changes to my routine tends to throw my feelings of well-being into jeopardy. Like Church on Sunday. Missing services for several Sundays back this past February due to poor weather conditions and illness caused feelings of missing or longing for something lost.

Our Church operates in a similar fashion. We seems to like the routine each week and each season. I am strengthened by the consistent attendance numbers over the past month. We have had Morning Prayer several Sundays in a row, and when that occurs, the concern is that attendance will fall. Our Worship Committee, Jim Birr, Harry Goff, Lynn Grames, Diana Howarth, Leah Milton, and Vestry Liaison

Clark Burton, has done a wonderful job refining the services, and our Worship Committee leader, Holly Garrett, has done a wonderful job contacting and scheduling supply Clergy. The reason for Morning Prayer so often is that there is a limited number of supply clergy available and it is the summer season when Rectors take vacations. Most of the supply Clergy available were already scheduled to cover vacations for Clergy at other Parishes. We were blessed to have Rev. Dunnington and Rev. Arnold and they will be back with us in July and August.

I feel the consistent attendance means that we are caring for each other and remembering that we are a family. A parish family that is supporting each other for whatever needs come about and supporting each other every Sunday by gathering together for worship and fellowship. Let us continue to be at Church on Sunday to be together as we work to chart the course for our parish. The course which God will make known to us as we pray for guidance during our discernment process.

Your friend,

Dennis Haefner

EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN

Seeking Sharing Serving

Our St. Barnabas ECW worked for the last nine months helping our church and outreach programs. We are celebrating this summer with many plans for entertainment and lots of fellowship opportunities. All ladies are invited to join in on the good times.

Upcoming Dates/Plans are:

June 19, 2019-Thirteen went to the Missouri Botanical Garden to view the beautiful flowers, ride the tram and share lunch at the Garden Café. Admission was free because Wednesdays are free for city and county residents.

July 2019-Karen Birr is arranging a trip to Josephine's Tea Room in Godfrey for a festive lunch plus a shopping spree. It is such a lovely tea room - decorated beautifully for each season. Delicious food, fabulous desserts, and shopping. What a joy to go! The final date will be determined soon and a sign-up sheet will available. Watch the bulletin for more information.

August 2019-A trip to the Playhouse at Westport Plaza is planned in August by Karen Birr to watch a very entertaining play, Assisted Living: the musical. Our cost is $27. Date will be forthcoming.

Check the table outside of the parish hall for sign-up sheets.

My pleasure,

Lana Maggart

SCHOOL SUPPLIES NEEDED

It is that time of year when we start collecting school supplies! As in past years, ALL school supply items will be greatly appreciated. Starting Sunday, July 7, a box for your donations will be under the table outside of Tudor Hall.

All donations are due by July 28. Thank you!
